LITURGY MATTERS

Mass with the People

By Mass with the people is meant a Mass celebrated with the participation of the faithful. Moreover, it is appropriate, in so far as possible, and especially on Sundays and Holydays of Obligation, that the celebration take place with singing and with a suitable number of ministers. It may, however, take place even without singing and with only one minister.

If at any celebration of Mass a Deacon is present, he should exercise his function. Furthermore, it is desirable that an acolyte, a reader, and a cantor should usually be there to assist the Priest Celebrant. Indeed, the rite described below foresees an even greater number of ministers.

Things to Be Prepared

The altar is to be covered with at least one white cloth. In addition, on or next to the altar are to be placed candlesticks with lighted candles: at least two in any celebration, or even four or six, especially for a Sunday Mass or a Holyday of Obligation, or if the Diocesan Bishop celebrates, then seven candlesticks with lighted candles. Likewise, on the altar or close to it, there is to be a cross adorned with a figure of Christ crucified. The candles and the cross with the figure of Christ crucified may also be carried in the procession at the Entrance. On the altar itself may be placed a Book of the Gospels distinct from the book of other readings, unless it is carried in the Entrance Procession.

Likewise these should be prepared:

- next to the Priest's chair: the Missal and, if appropriate, a hymnal;
- at the ambo: the Lectionary;
- on the credence table: the chalice, corporal, purificator, and, if appropriate, the pall; the paten and, if needed, ciboria; bread for the Communion of the Priest who presides, the Deacon, the ministers, and the people; cruets containing the wine and the water, unless all of these are presented by the faithful in the procession at the Offertory; the vessel of water to be blessed, if the sprinkling of holy water takes place; the Communion-plate for the Communion of the faithful; and whatever is needed for the washing of hands.

It is a praiseworthy practice for the chalice to be covered with a veil, which may be either of the color of the day or white.

In the sacristy, according to the various forms of celebration, there should be prepared the sacred vestments for the Priest, the Deacon, and other ministers:

- for the Priest: the alb, the stole, and the chasuble;
- for the Deacon: the alb, the stole, and the dalmatic; the latter may be omitted, however, either out of necessity or on account of a lesser degree of solemnity;
- for the other ministers: albs or other lawfully approved attire.

All who wear an alb should use a cincture and an amice unless, due to the form of the alb, they are not needed.

When the Entrance takes place with a procession, the following are also to be prepared: a Book of the Gospels; on Sundays and festive days, a thurible and incense boat, if incense is being used; the cross to be carried in procession; and candlesticks with lighted candles.

VOTE YES on 62 and NO on 66

5 Basic Reasons:

IMMORAL: "... The commandment 'thou shall not kill' has absolute value and pertains to the innocent as well as the guilty.

VICTIMS NO CLOSURE: Beth Webb, the sister of a woman gunned down by her ex-husband in a Seal Beach hair salon with eight others in 2011: I'm here to say that neither me nor my mom will find closure in the death of another human being."

INNOCENT: To date, 273 people in the United States have been exonerated by DNA testing, including 17 who served time on death row. These people served an average of 13 years in prison before exoneration and release.

RACE/ECONOMIC: California study found that those who killed whites were over 3 times more likely to be sentenced to death than those who killed blacks and over 4 times more likely than those who killed Latinos.

COST: Ending Executions would save $150 million dollars a year.

VOTA SI en la 62 y NO a la 66

5 Razones Básicas

INMORAL: "...El mandamiento 'No deberás matar' tiene valor absoluto y se refiere a los inocentes así como a los culpables.

VICTIMAS SIN CIERRE: Beth Woods, la hermana de una mujer que fue tiroteada con otras ocho personas en 2011 por su ex marido en un salón de pelo de Seal Beach: "Estoy aquí para decir que ni yo ni mi mamá encontraremos un sentido de cierre con la muerte de otro ser humano."

INOCENTE: Hasta la fecha, 273 personas en los Estados Unidos han sido exoneradas por pruebas ADN, incluyendo 17 que sirvieron tiempo en el corredor de muerte. Estas personas sirven un promedio de 13 años en prisión antes de su exoneración y libertad.

RAZA/ECONOMICO: Estudio de California encontró que quienes mataron blancos fueron más de 3 veces más probables de ser condenados a muerte que los que mataron a los negros y más de 4 veces más probables que los que mataron a los Latinos.

COSTO: Poner fin a las ejecuciones ahorraría 150 millones de dólares al año.

WEEKLY STEWARDSHIP

"...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Luke 18:14

Pride and ego is the root cause of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable, your talent is better than anyone else and your money gives you status is another way of making those things "gods" before God. Remember all those gifts were God-given. Instead we should be humbled by God's abundant generosity and our hearts should be filled with gratitude.

"... Porque el que se enaltece será humillado, y el que se humilla será enalzado." Lucas 18:14

El orgullo y el ego son la causa fundamental de la mayoría de nuestros pecados. Pensar que tu tiempo es muy valioso, que tu talento es mejor que el de cualquier otra persona y que tu dinero te da categoría es otra forma de hacer de esas cosas "dioses" delante de Dios. Recuerda que todos esos regalos te fueron dados por Dios. En cambio, debemos ser humildes por la abundante generosidad de Dios y nuestros corazones deberían estar llenos de gratitud.

Your contributions of time, talent and treasure to St. Madeleine Parish are greatly appreciated!

TOGETHER IN MISSION

God calls upon each one of us here to share our gifts with our brothers and sisters in Christ that are in need of them. Through Together in Mission we can share our mighty deeds and give the healing and faith to the communities that simply would not be here without them. Though our church is large, our strength lies not in our numbers, but in our compassion and ability to respond. Every gift, regardless of the size, matters. What is important is that we give what we can and answer this calling of our faith.
