TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 9, 2016

Treasures From Our Tradition

This month, parishes around the country will conduct the "October count," a measure of attendance at Sunday Mass. The measure has been taken for many centuries, and in some European dioceses it is possible to measure the level of engagement in worship by the population over the course of many centuries. Long ago, it was also the custom to track "Easter duty" by a statistical report. Penitents would receive a kind of chit at confession, which they would then turn in at their parish church when they received Holy Communion during Easter time.

Long ago, of course, Communion was fairly rare in the life of a Catholic Christian, perhaps only once a year. The chits would be tallied by parish priests and reported to the chancery, which in turn would hold on to the records and include the statistics in a report to the Vatican every five years. Nowadays, the October count has proved especially critical in the life of our Church as bishops use the figures to measure the vitality of church life, to sketch parish boundaries, and even to decide when to close, merge, or form new parishes.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Mientras muchos celebran el descubrimiento de América esta semana, los latinos celebramos más bien el Día de la Raza, insistiendo que Colón no pudo descubrir lo que no estaba ni perdido ni escondido. El 12 de octubre de 1492, Rodrigo de Triana grito: "Tierra a la vista". Estas fueron las primeras palabras Europeas que sonaron en el hemisferio occidental. Rodrigo gritaba a los españoles agitados y cansados por su largo viaje. Él les daba la buena noticia de que estaban por llegar a Guanahani, que Cristóbal Colón renombró San Salvador.

Es así como se engendró un nuevo pueblo en América. Una raza mestiza se engendró en la búsqueda de Asia y luego fue dada a luz con el derrame de sangre indígena a manos del conquistador. A través del tiempo el continente americano poblado por nativos, ha recibido sangre, cultura e idioma europea, africana y asiática. De esta manera se ha ido desarrollando nuestro mestizaje. Celebramos que somos una mezcla de sangres, culturas, lenguas y creencias. Somos raza mestiza, nacida en el dolor; trabajamos y luchamos por una vida mejor.

LITURGY MATTERS

Duties and Ministries in the Mass

The Ministry of the Instituted Acolyte, the Lector, and the Choir

The acolyte is instituted for service at the altar and to assist the Priest and Deacon. It is his place principally to prepare the altar and the sacred vessels and, if necessary, to distribute the Eucharist to the faithful as an extraordinary minister. In the ministry of the altar, the acolyte has his own proper functions, which he must carry out in person.

The lector is instituted to proclaim the readings from Sacred Scripture, with the exception of the Gospel. He may also announce the intentions for the Universal Prayer and, in the absence of a psalmist, recite the Psalm between the readings. In the celebration of the Eucharist, the lector has his own proper function, which he himself must carry out.

It is the psalmist's place to sing the Psalm or other biblical canticle to be found between the readings. To carry out this function correctly, it is necessary for the psalmist to be accomplished in the art of singing Psalms and have a facility in public speaking and elocution. Among the faithful, the choir exercises its own liturgical function, its place being to take care that the parts proper to it, in keeping with the different genres of chant, are properly carried out and to foster the active participation of the faithful by means of the singing. What is said about the choir also applies, with due regard for the relevant norms, to other musicians, and especially the organist. It is fitting that there be a cantor or a choir director to direct and support the people's singing. Indeed, when there is no choir, it is up to the cantor to direct the different chants, with the people taking the part proper to them.

El acólito es instituido para el servicio del altar y para ayudar al sacerdote y el diácono. Es su lugar principalmente para preparar el altar y los vasos sagrados y, si es necesario, para distribuir la Eucaristía a los fieles como ministro extraordinario. En el ministerio del altar, el acólito tiene sus propias funciones propias, que se debe llevar a cabo en persona.

El lector es instituido para proclamar las lecturas de la Sagrada Escritura, con la excepción del Evangelio. También podrá dar a conocer las intenciones de la oración universal y, en ausencia de un salmista, recita el salmo entre las lecturas. En la celebración de la Eucaristía, el lector tiene su propia función apropiada, que él mismo debe llevar a cabo.

Es el lugar del salmista para cantar el salmo u otro cántico bíblico de encontrarse entre las lecturas. Para llevar a cabo esta función correctamente, es necesario que el salmista, que deberán realizarse en el arte de cantar salmos y tienen una facilidad para hablar en público y la elocución. Entre los fieles, el coro ejerce su propia función litúrgica, siendo su lugar de cuidar de que las partes que le son propios, de acuerdo con los diferentes géneros de canto, se llevan a cabo adecuadamente y para fomentar la participación activa de los fieles por medio del canto. lo que se dice acerca de la coro se aplica también, dentro del respeto de las normas pertinentes, a otros músicos, y especialmente el organista. Es conveniente que haya un cantor o un director de coro para dirigir y apoyar el canto del pueblo. De hecho, cuando no hay un coro, que es hasta el cantor dirigir los diferentes cantos, con las personas que toman la parte que les es propia.

VOTE YES on 62 and NO on 66

5 Basic Reasons:

IMMORAL: "... The commandment 'thou shall not kill' has absolute value and pertains to the innocent as well as the guilty.

VICTIMS NO CLOSURE: Beth Webb, the sister of a woman gunned down by her ex-husband in a Seal Beach hair salon with eight others in 2011: I'm here to say that neither me nor my mom will find closure in the death of another human being."

INNOCENT: To date, 273 people in the United States have been exonerated by DNA testing, including 17 who served time on death row. These people served an average of 13 years in prison before exoneration and release.

RACE/ECONOMIC: California study found that those who killed whites were over 3 times more likely to be sentenced to death than those who killed blacks and over 4 times more likely than those who killed Latinos.

COST: Ending Executions would save $150 million dollars a year.

VOTA SI en la 62 y NO a la 66

5 Razones Básicas

INMORAL: "...El mandamiento 'No deberás matar' tiene valor absoluto y se refiere a los inocentes así como a los culpables.

VICTIMAS SIN CIERRE: Beth Woods, la hermana de una mujer que fue tiroteada con otras ocho personas en 2011 por su ex marido en un salón de pelo de Seal Beach: "Estoy aquí para decir que ni yo ni mi mamá encontraremos un sentido de cierre con la muerte de otro ser humano."

INOCENTE: Hasta la fecha, 273 personas en los Estados Unidos han sido exoneradas por pruebas ADN, incluyendo 17 que sirvieron tiempo en el corredor de muerte. Estas personas sirven un promedio de 13 años en prisión antes de su exoneración y libertad.

RAZA/ECONOMICO: Estudio de California encontró que quienes mataron blancos fueron más de 3 veces más probables de ser condenados a muerte que los que mataron a los negros y más de 4 veces más probables que los que mataron a los Latinos.

COSTO: Poner fin a las ejecuciones ahorraría 150 millones de dólares al año.

TOGETHER IN MISSION

God calls upon each one of us here to share our gifts with our brothers and sisters in Christ that are in need of them. Through Together in Mission we can share our mighty deeds and give the healing and faith to the communities that simply would not be here without them. Though our church is large, our strength lies not in our numbers, but in our compassion and ability to respond. Every gift, regardless of the size, matters. What is important is that we give what we can and answer this calling of our faith.

WEEKLY STEWARDSHIP

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control." 2 Timothy 1:7

Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything, all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party, at work or out shopping, would your actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

"Porque no nos ha dado un espíritu de timidez, sino de fortaleza, de amor y de dominio propio." 2 Timoteo 1:7

Muchos de nosotros compartimentamos nuestra fe, la mostramos sólo cuando asistimos a misa o cuando asistimos a un evento de la parroquia. Ser un buen administrador requiere la disciplina y el esfuerzo de poner a Dios primero en todo, todo el tiempo. La próxima vez que estés en una fiesta del vecindario, en el trabajo o de compras, ¿le demostrarías a los demás a través de tus acciones, que eres un siervo bueno y fiel de nuestro Señor?

POPE FRANCIS Quote of the Week:

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

Chosen to be the Mother of the Son of God, Mary, from the outset, was prepared by the love of God to be the Ark of the Covenant between God and man. She treasured divine mercy in her heart in perfect harmony with her Son Jesus. Her hymn of praise, sung at the threshold of the house of Elizabeth, was dedicated to the mercy of God which extends from "generation to generation" (Luke 1:50).
